

Available vacancy: Associate Solicitor – Property Litigation

Term: Full - Time

We are:

A leading law firm in Bromley, on the South London/Kent border. Established in 1889, we've come a long way and today we are a modern, progressive firm in a state of continual growth.

With teams specialising in the major areas of law we have a loyal client base which is ever growing.

We understand the importance of our people; the practice has been accredited by Investors in People since 2005, which is recognised across the world as a mark of excellence in 'putting people first'. The practice also ranks as a Legal 500 firm, is listed in the reputable Chambers Guides, is Lexcel accredited and a member of the Law Society's Conveyancing Quality Scheme and Wills & Inheritance Quality Scheme. To top all of that, we have also received accreditation for our staff engagement levels with a place in the Best Companies 'Ones to Watch' list.

You are :

Efficient, confident and an excellent communicator who is able to clearly and concisely advise clients, as well as communicate with your colleagues to share ideas and progress cases.

Your great communication skills are also very helpful when it comes to networking externally and working with your colleagues internally in order to play your part in growing the department.

You like to work with your colleagues to get the best outcome for your clients and you understand the importance of excellent client care, with a desire and the clear ability to manage and meet client expectations.

At Judge & Priestley we pride ourselves on being expert, professional and friendly and we have high expectations that you pride yourself on the same.

You have:

- You have qualification and are eligible to practice as a solicitor in England.
- Associate level Experience within Property Litigation and a record of accomplishment in all aspects of residential leasehold disputes in the County Court, FtT and Upper Tribunal in a similar field, which must include substantial experience of dealing with leasehold property and service charge disputes, Commercial property disputes, Housing management litigation, disrepair, injunctions, anti- social behaviour work, Property disputes, for example boundaries, trespass, easements, Leasehold enfranchisement, Commercial Lease disputes and lease renewals
- Experience of delivering excellent customer care in a legal environment
- You have expert, up to date knowledge of property litigation processes, procedures and legislation
- Awareness of marketplace and current developments, opportunities and threats
- Network of Property professionals
- Excellent commercial awareness

You will:

Work on your own caseload, support and guidance will be available from the Head of Litigation with more complex issues but you must be able to work independently in many instances and be confident enough in your skills to also be able to offer support when needed.

If your application is unsuccessful we may keep your personal data on file for up to 12 months. We recommend that you read our Job Applicant Privacy Policy which you can find on our website.

Judge & Priestley is committed to equality of opportunity and welcomes applications from all sections of the community.

We will offer an automatic interview to candidates who meet the minimum requirements for the role and have a disability under the Equality Act 2010. Please call our HR department on 0208 290 0333 if you believe that this applies to you.

Please note that upon acceptance of an offer of employment all successful applicants are required to undergo a Basic Disclosure for unspent convictions.

Please email CV to recruitment@judge-priestley.co.uk to apply or for further information.
