

judge&priestley
SOLICITORS • EST. 1889

Justin House, 6 West Street, Bromley, Kent BR1 1JN

Available vacancy: Trainee Solicitor – Debt Recovery Litigation

Term: Permanent

We are...

A leading law firm in Bromley, on the South London/Kent border. Established in 1889, we've come a long way and today we are a modern, progressive firm in a state of continual growth.

With teams specialising in the major areas of law we have a loyal client base which is ever growing.

We understand the importance of our people; the practice has been accredited by Investors in People since 2005, which is recognised across the world as a mark of excellence in 'putting people first'. The practice also ranks as a Legal 500 firm, is listed in the reputable Chambers Guides, is Lexcel accredited and a member of the Law Society's Conveyancing Quality Scheme and Wills & Inheritance Quality Scheme. To top all of that, we have also received accreditation for our staff engagement levels with a place on the Best Companies 'Ones to Watch' list.

You are:

A bright, enthusiastic candidate with proven academic abilities and a genuine desire for a career in law. As an able and committed team player you enjoy legal research but also have a practical problem-solving approach to your work and the ability to think creatively.

You will need to demonstrate strong verbal and written communication skills, an ability to cope with responsibility and the desire to immediately add value to the firm. You will also be keen to show us what makes you stand out from the crowd, demonstrating this in your covering letter.

You have:

- Completed a qualifying law degree, minimum grade of 2:1 and the LPC, minimum grade Commendation and have a year's experience of managing your own Debt Recovery caseload.

If your undergraduate degree was in a non-law subject, you must have completed the GDL, graded at the minimum level of 2:1 if your application is made in accordance with the first bullet point; 1:1 if made in accordance with the second bullet point unless the LPC was a distinction.

You will:

Gain comprehensive experience and training in debt recovery litigation, the area in which you will spend most of your time and which engages a number of different areas of law.

During your training contract you will be involved in intellectually challenging work and be provided with the support needed to flourish into an outstanding solicitor. You will be expected to put in lots of hard work and plenty of commitment to achieve the best results for the firm and out clients.

You will be part of an outgoing, welcoming team that enjoys friendly competition.

Judge & Priestley is committed to equality of opportunity and welcomes applications from all sections of the community.

J&P will offer an automatic interview to candidates who meet the minimum requirements for the role and have a disability under the Equality Act 2010. Please call our HR department on 0208 290 0333 if you believe that this applies to you.

We regret that we may not be able to respond to all applicants if large volumes are received. If you have not received a response within 2 weeks please assume your application has not been successful and accept our apologies for not providing a personal response.

Successful applicants are required to undergo a Basic Disclosure for unspent convictions, Adverse Financial Check, ID check and 3-year Work History Check.