

Available vacancy: Trainee Solicitor – Private Client

Start Date - September 2022

Salary - 1st Year £28,000 per annum, 2nd year £29,000 per annum

Exciting Opportunity at Judge and Priestley Solicitors LLP

We are a leading regional law firm, serving a wide range of commercial and private clients across SE London and the surrounding counties, from our Head Office in Bromley and additional offices in Beckenham and Blackheath. Established since 1889, we've come a long way and today we are a modern, progressive practice, proud of our record on diversity and inclusion and reputation for training and promoting staff from within the business.

As a Trainee Solicitor in the team, you will be working with solicitors and partners to support their activities. From an early stage, you will be encouraged, under supervision, to take on direct client contact and work on live matters as part of your training and progression. Successful Trainee solicitors at J&P have, in the past, successfully progressed their careers within the business up to partner level.

Listed in the Legal 500, our Private Client team has grown significantly in recent years and is now one of the biggest teams in the south east, supporting and advising clients on a comprehensive range of personal matters including: estate planning, tax, trust, contentious and non-contentious probate, wills and powers of attorney and elderly client affairs. The team members support clients making important personal decisions and through often challenging and difficult times in their lives and take pride in their empathetic approach, interacting with clients in a supportive manner, in clear terms which are easily understood.

During your training contract you will be involved in intellectually challenging work and be provided with the support needed to flourish into an outstanding solicitor. You will be expected to put in lots of hard work and plenty of commitment to achieve the best results for the firm and our clients.

Your attributes, experience, and skillset

You are a bright enthusiastic candidate with proven academic abilities and have the genuine desire and talent for a career in law. As an able and committed team player you enjoy legal research and are committed to taking the lead on enhancing your knowledge to ensure you have a strong understanding of the law. You also have a practical problem-solving approach to your work and the ability to think creatively whilst working efficiently in a fast-paced environment.

If you feel your attributes, experience and skillset match our requirements, then we would be interested in hearing from you. In return we offer you a competitive salary and generous benefits package in a supportive environment, with plenty of scope for your career advancement and salary progression.

You have;

- a) At least a 2:1 in a relevant degree
- b) Successful completion of the Legal Practice Course with distinction or commendation or are in the process of completing your Legal Practice Course at present with predicted grades of a distinction or commendation

We offer an attractive salary and package. The successful candidate will be paid £28,000 per annum in their first year and £29,000 per annum in their second year of training. You will receive 22 days annual leave plus bank holidays. Other benefits include, contribution to legal fees, death in service benefit, birthday off, Christmas bonus, profit share bonus, access to 'cycle to work' scheme, Bupa Health Cash Plan to name a few.

If you feel your attributes, experience and skillset match our requirements, then we would be interested in hearing from you. In return we offer you a competitive salary and generous benefits package in a supportive environment, with plenty of scope for your career advancement and salary progression.
